TRAF Plan Basics

Required contributions

- All eligible full-time, part-time, term and, in certain cases, substitute teachers must contribute to TRAF

TRAF contributions based on annual salary of $80,000

Earnings up to YMPE*	$71,300	x	8.8%	=	$ 6,274.40
Earnings over YMPE*	$8,700	x	10.4%	=	$ 904.80
Total Earnings	$80,000
Total annual TRAF contributions				=	$ 7,129.20

* YMPE is the year's maximum pensionable earnings under the Canada Pension Plan.

Required contributions

- Contributions are deducted from pensionable earnings based on the number of pensionable days in a month and, therefore, fluctuate
- Contributions are not deducted in July and August if you have no pensionable days in these months

Additional voluntary contributions (AVCs)

- Operates like a separate retirement savings account
- Subject to maximum limits under the Income Tax Act (Canada)
- Deducted from salary through your school division
- Contributions accumulate with interest at the fund rate of return (net), positive or negative
- Can be converted to a monthly annuity at retirement, paid as a lump sum before retirement or used to purchase eligible service
- Consider advantages and disadvantages
- Calculator and application are available at traf.mb.ca

Calculating your pension

- TRAF is a defined benefit pension plan, which means your pension is based on:
 - Average pensionable salary
 - Years of pensionable service
- The pension is not determined by your contributions and investment income

Pensionable salary

- Salary rate (full-time equivalent)
 - Includes administrative allowances
 - Excludes pre-tax benefits, car allowance, summer or night school earnings
 - Includes “deemed” salary while receiving disability benefits
- Average salary is based on the best five¹ years of salaries in the last 12 years prior to retirement

¹ Best seven years for service prior to July 1980. This can be converted to the best five-year average to increase your pension. Contact TRAF for more information.

Pensionable service

Pensionable service is credited for actual days worked.

Service that counts

- Employment covered by TRAF. For example:
 - Teachers, clinicians, principals and superintendents
 - The Faculty of Education at a Manitoba university
 - The Manitoba Department of Education
 - The Manitoba Teachers’ Society (MTS)
 - Manitoba School Boards Association (MSBA)
- Personal business days with full or partial pay, or while receiving disability benefits
- Purchased service
- Transferred service

Service that does not count

- Deferred salary leave
- Unpaid personal and sick leaves
- Leaves not provided for under The Teachers’ Pensions Act

Eligibility

- Depends on a number of variables:
 - The date your contract is terminated with your employer
 - Age
 - Qualifying service

Pensionable vs. qualifying service

Pensionable service

- The actual time spent working (full time, part time, under a term contract, and substitute service for which you made contributions) or in receipt of certain group disability benefits
- Determines the amount of your pension before adjustments for early retirement or plan option

Qualifying service

- Service as a TRAF member credited to the end of the last month in which there is pensionable service
- Determines entitlement to a reduced or unreduced pension and any applicable early retirement penalty (ERP) and offsetting bridging benefit

Eligibility

- Normal retirement – age 65
 - Unreduced pension (no minimum qualifying service requirement)
- Early retirement – age 55 to 65
 - Less than 10 qualifying years – actuarially reduced
 - 10 or more qualifying years – may be subject to a lifetime ERP (if pension starts before age 60 and age and qualifying service total less than 80), plus offsetting bridging benefit, payable to the earlier of age 65 or death
- Postponed retirement – after age 65
 - Unreduced pension (no minimum qualifying service requirement)
 - Pension must start no later than the end of year member turns age 71

July 2024 statistics

Average retirement age: 59.5

Approximately 20.7% retired at age 55

Approximately 39% retired at age 60 or older

Average monthly gross pension: $3,423

Average pensionable service: 25.5 years

Automatic pension commencement

If you are at least 65 and have at least 15 years of qualifying service:

- Your pension will start automatically once both conditions are met
- No requirement to terminate your contract from your employer
- Contributions cease (and are no longer allowed)
- Pensionable service accrual ceases
- Not subject to teaching after retirement rules

Unless you elect to continue contributing past age 65¹, then:

- Contributions continue to be deducted from your salary
- Pensionable service continues to accrue
- Can start pension any time after age 65 without terminating your contract
- Pension paid is the greater of the accrued pension or the actuarial equivalent of the age 65 pension

Pension formula examples

- Assume a member:
 - Retired in June 2024
 - With 28 years of qualifying service
 - With 28 years of pensionable service
 - With a five-year average pensionable salary of $95,000
- Based on the pension formula, the monthly base pension for this member would be $3,548¹ ($42,582 per year)
- The following examples show the impact of a change in average salary and pensionable service

¹ Reductions for relationship breakdown, early retirement and offsetting bridging benefit, if applicable, are applied at this stage; all plan options are calculated as a percentage of the base pension (Plan A).

Pension formula examples

Impact of higher average salary

Pensionable Service	5-Year Average Salary	Monthly Base Pension
28 years	$95,000	$3,548
28 years	$97,000	$3,641
Increase in pension		$93

- Qualifying service would be 28 years

Pension formula examples

Impact of additional years of pensionable service

Pensionable Service	5-Year Average Salary	Monthly Base Pension
28 years	$95,000	$3,548
30 years	$95,000	$3,802
Change in pension		$254

- Qualifying service would be 28 and 30 years, respectively

Pension formula examples

Impact of working part time (example at 50%)

Pensionable Service	5-Year Average Salary	Monthly Base Pension
28 years (full time)	$95,000	$3,548
14 years (50% part time)	$95,000	$1,774
Difference in pension		$1,774

- A full-time equivalent salary is used to determine the pension for a part-time member
- This member will have 28 years of qualifying service for eligibility purposes (not 14 years)
- This member accumulates half of the pensionable service of a full-time member
- This member will be paid half the pension of a full-time member

ADDITIONAL VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS

INTRODUCTION

As a contributing member, you may choose to make tax-deductible additional voluntary contributions (AVCs), which are deducted by your employer from your salary. These contributions do not provide you with additional service but are rather like a separate retirement savings account, subject to certain limits.

AVCs accumulate with interest at TRAF's rate of return (which may be positive or negative). The balance in the account can be:

- Converted to an annuity at retirement (not eligible for cost of living adjustments) that supplements your TRAF pension,
- Used to purchase eligible service such as substitute service or educational leaves, or
- Withdrawn as a lump sum in cash, less withholding taxes, or transferred on a tax-deferred basis to your RRSP any time before you retire.

AVCs cannot remain in the plan once your pension benefit has been paid.

WHAT ARE THE LIMITS?

You can make AVCs to TRAF up to the lesser of:

- 18% of your salary, or
- The Money Purchase Limit as prescribed by the Income Tax Act

less your pension adjustment (before AVC contribution).

Making AVCs this year will reduce your allowable RRSP contribution room next year by the same amount.

WHY SHOULD I MAKE ADDITIONAL VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS?

Planning for your retirement is a very personal matter. AVCs are one option for increasing your retirement income.

ADVANTAGES

- You can take advantage of TRAF's comprehensive investment program and low administrative costs.
- You participate in TRAF's investment opportunities.
- Contributions are made through payroll deduction by your employer.
- You can increase your retirement income on a tax-effective basis.

DISADVANTAGES

(COMPARED TO AN RRSP CONTRIBUTION)

- TRAF's investment strategy is focused on the long-term funding objectives of the pension plan and may not be consistent with your investment objectives and risk tolerance.
- With an RRSP contribution, you can tailor your investments to meet your personal investment objectives and risk tolerance, particularly as you near retirement.
- RRSP contributions are available for other uses such as the Home Buyers' Plan and Lifelong Learning Plan.

HOW DO I MAKE ADDITIONAL VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS?

AVCs are deducted from your salary up to the permitted limits under the Income Tax Act. You may increase, decrease or stop your payroll deduction at any time.

You will need to use the Additional Voluntary Contribution Calculator to:

- Determine the amount you can contribute, and apply to have AVCs deducted from your pay. The application form is part of the calculator.
- To apply, you must complete the application contained in the Additional Voluntary Contribution Calculator, and print, sign and submit one copy of this form to your employer's payroll office and one signed copy to TRAF.

You must reapply each calendar year. You should also review your AVC deductions during the year if you have a significant change in earnings to ensure you do not overcontribute.

The Additional Voluntary Contribution Calculator and application form are accessible on our website.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

- Register for Online Services to access your personal account.
- Log in to your Online Services account to watch the digital presentation on Making Additional Voluntary Contributions.
- Consult with a professional advisor to determine if making AVCs is right for you.
- Log in to your Online Services account to view your annual statement. If you have made AVCs, they will be shown under the Contributions & Interest section of your statement.
